

Seeding the gut with favorable organisms to ensure your young animals get the right start

Feeding a favorable environment for more efficient nutrient absorption

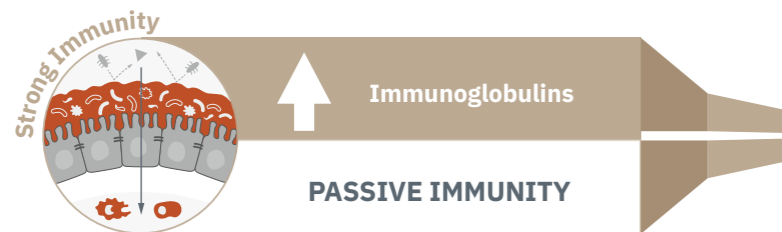

Weeding out unfavorable organisms, maintaining microbial diversity and improving natural defenses

Farrowing

Weaning and piglets

Weight at weaning
Growth performance
Survival rate

Improved FCR

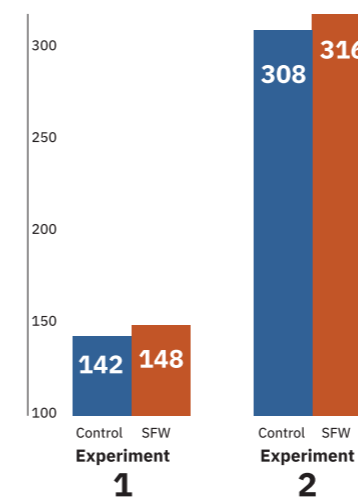

Gut microbiota diversity
Nutrient absorption
Diet transition

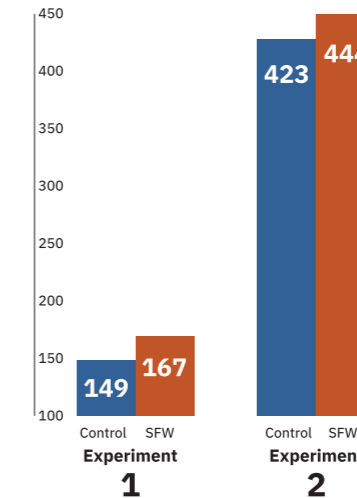

Immunoglobulins
Antibiotics and ZnO use
Medication costs

Manure immune system established

ADG (g/d)

ADFI (g/d)

FCR

Improved
liveability by 3%

